In several depositions he stated his age: 36 on 26 Aug 1740, 39 on 3 July 1742, 41 on 18 Nov 1745, 53 on 31 May and on 11 Aug 1755 (Som. Jud. 1740/42:43, 1742/44:152, 1744/47:97, 1754/57:114 and 136).

According to the Som. Co. Tax Lists, in 1723 he was in the household of his half-brother, Isaac Boston, in Pocomoke Hundred, then head of his own household in 1728 in the same hundred, in Annemessex Hundred in 1733-34 (bro. Thomas with him) and in 1751-54, and Pocomoke Hundred again 1756-59.

From his father, George inherited by primogeniture parts of "Longs Lott". On 7 June 1738, for 5 shillings, George bought from Edward Beauchamp and wife Naomy 45 acres of "Ledbourn" (Dryden, Som. Land 253). On 6 May 1744 George Marshall and wife Mary of Morumsco sold to John White, Jr., 60 acres, i.e. 44 acres of "Longs Lott" and 16 acres of "Ledbourn", adj. tract called "The Exchange", and on 9 Feb 1748 George Marshall, with Samuel Long and wife Sarah, Thomas Cottingham and wife Mary (heirs of Randal Long) sold to Robert King tract "Lots Purchase", 85 acres made up of "Long's Lott" and "Ledbourn" (Dryden Som. 10. SAMUEL MARSHALL, son of Adrian and Elizabeth (Long) Marshall (2), b. probably at Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md., c1704; d. Som. Co. after 1759; mar. (c1724) Grace Adams, dau. of Phillip and Ellis (Taylor) Adams. She mar. 2nd (before 1769) her late husband's brother, Thomas Marshall (11). In two depositions Samuel gave his age: as 48 on 28 June 1753, as 56 in 1759 (Som. Jud. 1752/54:127 & 1760/63:37). In 1723/24 he is listed in the household of his uncle Randall Long in Annemessex Hundred; in 1725 and 1727 in that of his half-brother Isaac Boston, Pocomoke Hundred. He was head of his own household in Pocomoke Hundred 1730-35 (his brother Thomas was with him in 1730) and in Annemessex Hundred 1738-54. There is no indication in tax lists that he had sons born Accts. 14:332), b. c1712; mar. 2nd (before 1769) Grace Adams, widow of his brother Samuel. In four depositions in which Thomas Marshall reported his age, his birth falls between 1707 and 1715; tax lists suggest 1712/14. In a deposition of 1759, he gave his age as 48; in one of 10 Feb 1762, he was aged 52; in another of 20 May 1775, his age was 60; and in one of 20 Oct 1776 he gave his age as 69 (Som. Jud. 1760/3:3 & 254; 1770s.)

On 30 Nov 1740 Thomas Marshall, planter, secured a grant, "Marshall's Inheritance," 438 acres on Morumsco Creek, 129 acres of which he sold on 7 Oct 1746 to his cousin, Jeffrey Long (Som. Deeds 21:217). In 1751 Marshall was appointed a guardian to the children of his half-brother, Isaac Boston. In 1756 he loaned money to his nephew, Isaac Boston, on 6 July 1756 taking a mortgage on Isaac's land inherited from his father, "Sayward's Purchase", 181 acres; on 7 July 1757 Rachel Boston, widow of Isaac, sold to Thomas Marshall her third (Dryden, Som. (c1721) JAMES TRAHEARN (Trahern, Trahearen), son of presumably George and Anne (Cammeday) Trahearn (mar. Som. Co. 29 Aug 1679—IKL), b. Somerset Co. c1688/89; d. Somerset Co. by 23 Mar 1771. On 21 Nov 1721 James Trehearn bought from George and Susannah Wilson 100 acres of "Dixon's Lot" (Dryden, Som. Land Records, p. 129). James witnessed the will of Daniel Long, his wife's uncle, 10 Feb 1737/38. In 1749 James patented 55 acres, "Trahearn's Lott," in Brinkley's, northwest, election district No. 3 (Dryden op. cit. p. 393).

In his will, signed 28 Aug 1769, James Trehearn bequeathed to his son Samuel the tract "Trahearn's Lott," and made bequests to son Cyrus, daughters Betty Trehearn, Glepora Silbet (Selby), and to wife Anne. Adams, b. c1718; d. Som. Co. by 9 Mar 1773. John Long (his nephew, No. 3) was listed in his household in 1730 and 1731. In 1739 William Woods was head of a household in Pocomoke Hundred. In his grandfather Thomas Wood's will (1727) he was bequeathed "Allens Content," resurveyed in 1751 as "Woods Content," 161 acres. On 2 Aug 1748 William Wood purchased part of tract "Dublin," at Morumsco (Dryden, Som. Land p. 142). In 1773 Levi Wood willed this to his sister, Leah Wood, if no issue, to Levi Wood, son of Elijah (op. cit. p. 142). In the 1783 tax list, William Wood held 92 acres; in 1795/7 William Wood gave it to his son Joshua Wood.

In his will, dated 26 Oct 1760, William left to son Levi his dwelling plantation, tract "Dublin," if no issue, to son William. He also named daughters Leah, Sarah, son Elijah, and Martha Wood. Witnesses were Purnell Outten, James Dakes, Elias Taylor (Som. Wills EB4:79-80).

27. ADRIAN MARSHALL, eldest son of George and Mary (Adams) Marshall (9), b. Somerset Co., Md., c1725/28; d. Somerset Co., before 23 Dec 1777; mar. (c1748) Peggy _____, b. c1731. "Adrein Marchel" is listed in the Somerset Co., Md., 1757 tax list as head of household 554, Pocomoke Hundred. No other taxpayers are with him. Neighbors included James Nairn (household 553), George Weatherlake (household 555). In 1759 Adrian "Marchal" is listed in household 402 in Pocomoke Hundred; with him are Jacob and Baley Mathews, and Caleb Milbourn. Neighbors included John Hall, his brother-in-law (household 401) and Ezekiel Mathews (household 403).

He died intestate before 23 Dec 1777, when Peggy Marshall, his widow, demanded to be named, and was named, his administratrix, with bonds by Peggy Marshall, Beauchamp Davis, Philip Adams of Hope (Som. Wills EB 1:56-57). An inventory was filed 23 Feb 1778; appraisers were William Moore and Hope Adams, next of kin George Marshall and Risdon Marshall, chief creditors Mary Marshall and Thomas Robertson, Peggy Marshall administratrix (Som. Wills EB 1:62-63). Their children were listed in Som. Accts. & Distributions, 31 Aug 1779 (Source for this family: M. K. Miles).

Children (born Somerset Co., Md., probably Morumsco):

- i. Martha Marshall, b. c1749.
- ii. Sarah Marshall, b. c1751.
- iii. Polly Marshall, b. c1753.
- iv. Levinah Marshall, b. c1755.
- v. Ephraim Marshall, b. c1757; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 30 July 1798) Polly Noble.

An inventory of his estate was made 22 Mar 1762 (Md. Prerogative Court, Md. Archives 85:129), showing wife Rhoda (Roday) administratrix, nearest of kin Aaron (Adreon) Marshall and Mary Marshall, greatest creditors Elizabeth Matthew and Samuel Adams, appraisers Purnell Outten and Elijah Conner (family researched by M. K. Miles).

Children (born Somerset Co., Md., bapt. Coventry):

- i. Benjamin Marshall, b. c1752. It is assumed here that this Benjamin Marshall, who served in the American Revolution in Va., was a brother of the John Marshall who also served from Va., for both had the same heirs, implying that neither was ever married, or at least they d. childless, for their heirs were the descendants of their sisters. The presence of George Marshall's descendants among these heirs remains a puzzle since George was certainly not a brother of John and Benjamin. It is possible that a sister, Nancy or Mary, mar. George Marshall, and their descendants thus became the heirs of Benjamin and John.
- ii. Nancy Marshall, b. 8 June 1754.
- iii. John Marshall, b. 5 Aug 1757. He served in the American armed forces from Virginia during the Revolution.
- iv. Mary Marshall, b. 10 Nov 1761.

He made his will 9 Nov 1802 (prob. 18 Jan 1803), naming wife Gertrude executrix, and minor children John, Betsy, William, Henry and George; and daughter Nancy Morris and son-in-law Robert Morris were to receive land. Witnesses were James Bennett, Ephraim Marshall, John Fitzgerald (Som. Wills EB23:62).

Children (born Somerset Co., Md., probably Morumsco):

- i. Nancy Marshall, b. c1779; mar. (c1795) ROBERT MORRIS.
- ii. John Marshall, b. c1782.
- iii. Betsy Marshall, b. c1786.
- iv. William Marshall, b. c1786.
- v. Henry Marshall, b. c1788.
- vi. George Marshall, b. c1790.

30. SAMUEL MARSHALL, [SR.], son of Samuel (10) and Grace (Adams) Marshall, b. Morumsco, Somerset Co., Md., c1725; d. Accomack Co., Va., probably at Saxis, c1785. This reconstruction is based upon the researches of descendant Moody K. Miles of Woodbridge, Va., who has traced several thousand descendants.

Samuel was living after 1758 at Saxis, Acco. Co., Va. There are no explicit records to prove that this first Samuel Marshall Sr. on Saxis Island was the son of Samuel Marshall (1704-1759, #10). The assumption that he was son of the elder Samuel is based on the process of elimination and the following six facts: (1) Thomas Marshall (1712-86), brother of Samuel (1704-59), appeared to own land on Saxis Island although no Acco. Co. records have been found showing him buying land there; (2) Thomas had two sons, Isaac and Stephen, who also appear to have owned land on Saxis Island, for their land is mentioned in several deeds (see their records for more details); (3) when Isaac Marshall's estate was settled in 1791, reference was made to money due Abraham and Benjamin Marshall of Acco. Co., sons of Samuel Marshall (Sr.); (4) neither Samuel Marshall Sr. nor any of his descendants was named in the will of Thomas Marshall (1712-1786), who would have been the obvious choice to be Samuel Sr.'s father, having been named in several Acco. Co. records as having land on Saxis Island; (5) neither Samuel Sr. nor any of his descendants was named in the wills of any other Somerset Co. Marshalls; (6) Samuel Marshall would have had to be connected to the Somerset Co. Marshalls, for they were the Marshalls holding land at Saxis and not the Acco. Co. Marshalls, who were in the Horntown area on the seaside.

Samuel Marshall Sr. was living in Acco. Co. on 31 May 1758, when John Williams brought suit against him, "the Sheriff having returned that he had left a true copy of the Petition and Summons at the place of abode of the said Samuel" (Acco. Orders 1753-63:244). On 29 Dec 1763 petitions brought by John Trolepy against "Samuel Martial, Senr." and "Samuel Martial, Junr." were dismissed (Acco. Orders 1753-63:649 & 650). Samuel, Sr., apparently a waterman and a trapper, was renting land from "the Trustees for Sanford Charity" by 4 July 1773, when he had paid a year's rent of 1611 pounds of tobacco; when the Trustees met 20 July 1774, Samuel Marshall had paid the same rent (Sanford Charity Record Book, pp 1 & 2).

On 23 Feb 1774 a petition was brought by Hugh McBride and John Craig, plaintiffs, against Samuel Marshall, defendant, for debt on an account. Attorneys were Luther Martin and George Corbin; the petition was dismissed and the defendant was to recover costs. The [another?] petition issued by McBride and Craig against Thomas Marshall was [also] dismissed, the Sheriff having returned that the defendant had no residence in Acco. Co. (Acco. Orders 1774-77:50). The assumption here is that this was Samuel Marshall, Sr., who died c1785, but it could have been his son Samuel, Jr. Samuel Sr. had an uncle, Thomas Marshall (1712-86), who lived in Somerset Co., Md., and bought land on "Sikes Island" in 1772. This could have been the Thomas referred to in the order.

Samuel Marshall appears on the Acco. Co. tax list for 1784, as does Samuel Marshall, Jr. He appears to have died in 1785/86, for the 1787 tax list shows only one Samuel Marshall; Samuel Sr. owned no land and left no will. Two of his sons, Benjamin and Thomas, were renting Sanford Charity land in 1800, 1802, and 1805 through 1809 (pp. 24 & 28).

In 1759 John inherited from his father 316 acres of "Chance," in Dublin District (Dryden Som. Land 73). In 1775 he patented 5 ¾ acres "Turkey Trap" (Dryden 397). In 1780 he patented 14 ½ acres "Hog Quarter" (Dryden 217), all in Dublin District. The Harrises evidently lived in the vicinity of Rehobeth and New Town (modern Pocomoke City). On 25 Mar 1785 John Harris bought from Benjamin Stevenson "Peace and Plenty," Worcester Co. (Dryden Worc. Land 467).

In his will, dated 13 Feb 1788, John Harris bequeathed to his son John, Jr., the plantation "whereon I now live," i.e. "Chance," 316 acres, and 50 acres more, also "Hogg Quarter" (14 acres), "Cuppels" (14 acres), "Venture" (7 acres), "Turkey Trap" (5 acres), and slaves; to son Thomas he left land bought from Benjamin Stevenson in Worcester Co. on the Pocomoke River (i.e. "Peace & Plenty"), and a slave; to son George (under 21), Negroes; to son Isaac, Negroes; and he also named

In 1809 the major part of his inherited land, "Chance," was resurveyed for his brother-in-law Josiah W. Heath, as "Heath's Experiment," a total of 739 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres (Dryden Som. Land 73).

36. SOLOMON LONG, son of David (14), b. Worc. Co., Md., c1745; d. Worc. Co. 1791/1800; mar. (between 13 July 1770 and probably May 1771) Comfort, widow of Stevens White of Worc. Co. On 13 July 1770 Comfort White was executrix of Stevens White; nearest of kin were John and Henry White (Worc. Inv. 105:11). In the distribution of the estate 7 Nov 1772 Solomon Long and wife Comfort were executors of Stevens White (Ann. Balance Bk. 6: 291). In 1768 Solomon secured patents to "Whaley's Neglect" and "Longs Venture" (165 acres). On 3 Feb 1767 he bought from Hugh Bratten for £40 "Lack in Time"; on 7 Oct 1768 he bought from Isaiah Breddell for £85 "Security Enlarged" (405 acres), originally granted to Jesse Gray; on 5 Nov 1772 he bought from Chalton Smith for £45 "Partnership"; on 24 Dec 1779 from Jonathan Johnson he bought "Vernum Deane"; on 27 Mar 1781 he bought from Coulbourn Long for £200 two tracts, "Cumberland" and "Silver Street" (107 acres). On 2 Oct 1790 Solomon, with George Bell, for £160 deeded to Joshua Gray "Cumberland," adjacent land of Col. John Gunby and Dr. Thomas Fassitt, 300 acres; witnesses, Josiah and John P. Mitchell. On 28 July 1798 for £200 Solomon deeded to Jesse Gray "Silver Street," adjacent to John Turpin, a 100 acre tract granted to William Wouldhave (great-grandfather of Solomon's mother) 3 May 1680. An on 8 Feb 1799 for £194.10 Solomon deeded to Joshua Gray "Tuxberry," 60 acres, and also "Littleworth" (13 acres); witnesses again were John P. and Josiah Mitchell (Worc. Deeds G:57, 479; I:169; K:238; S:69, 463; T:77). On 12 July 1799, judgment against Solomon for "Culver's Luck" (Dryden, Worc. Land 157). In the 1783 Worc. Co. tax list Solomon was in Queponco Hundred, with 125 acres (unnamed). He left no estate. Though there is no direct evidence that Solomon had children, there is every reason to conclude that Comfort Long was his daughter: Solomon Long sold more of his land to her husband than to anyone else; and Joshua Gray in 1800 and 1810 was near neighbor of the Longs.

Child (born Worcester Co., Md., probably in Queponco area):

- i. Comfort Long, b. 14 Feb 1772; d. 24 May 1831; mar. JOSHUA GRAY.

Elizabeth Long was executor for David. She appeared in the 1783 tax list in Queponco Hundred holding "Dukesberry." She died in Worc. Co. by 2 Sep 1825. In her will, dated 21 July 1821, she named daughter Rachel Long, wife of Samuel Long, granddaughters Elizabeth Davis daughter of Elisha Davis (to be paid her at age 16 by my grandson Peter Jones), Sarah Holland, wife of John, and grandson Peter Jones, executor. Witnesses were Edward H. Rownd, Mary L. Fassitt, Thomas S. Fassitt (Worc. Wills MH57:158).

38. COULBOURN LONG, son of David (14), b. Worc. Co., Md. c1757; d. Worc. Co. 9/14 Feb 1809; mar. (c1793) Mary (?Round?). On 10 Aug 1799 he bought 33 ½ a. "Mitchell's Outlet" from Henry Mitchell (Dryden, Worc. Land, 407). Was it this Coulbourn who bought 5 Dec 1780 "Culvers Luck" from Hampton Rounds, son of James Rounds, and John Davis with wife Rhoda, all their claim to "Cumberland" and "Silver Street"? (Dryden, p. 157.) Coulbourn sold 112 ¾ a. of it to Solomon Long 17 Mar 1782. On 17 Aug 1800 Coulbourn Long sold "Brothers Security" to Thomas Simpson Fassitt.

In his will, dated 9 Feb 1809, Coulbourn Long bequeathed to sons Coulbourn and David land purchased of Colonel Gils?, 300 a. He mentioned a bond in the hands of David Walls in Accomack Co., Va., named Samuel Long executor. Witnesses were Henry White, Salathiel Bowen, Colbern Birch (Worc. Wills MH:149).

Children:

- i. Coulbourn Long, Jr., b. 1793/94; d. probably in Salisbury, Md. 1860/70; mar. (Worc. lic. 31 Dec 1818) Mary Devorix, b. 1794/5; d. probably in Salisbury, 1860/70. Coulbourn, aged 45, was head of household 169 in Salisbury, 1850, with wife Mary and son John, aged 30. He was a hatter. He was head of household 1393 in Salisbury, 1860, still a hatter, aged 65. As of 1782 Hampton, together with his brothers Elihu, Solomon, and Coulbourn Long, inherited "Security," part (116 acres, "Security Enlarged,") to be sold (Dryden, Worc. Land, p. 555). On 13 Nov 1791 (Worc. Deeds O:336-7), Samuel Long sold to Hampton Long all right to land in Worc. (no names): "Cumberland?" On 13 Jan 1796, James Selby & wife Mary sold to Solomon and Hampton Long 300 A "Cumberland," and on the same date Solomon and Hampton sold to George Bell 300 A "Cumberland," being maiden rights of mother Abigail Long. On 9 Feb 1792 Solomon and Hampton sold to James Selby right of their mother Abigail Long. (Dryden, op. cit. 157).

On 20 Nov 1792 Solomon and Hampton Long sold to John Richards 100 acres "Brothers Security," which they had apparently inherited from Samuel Long, who in 1783 paid tax on 435 acres "Brothers Security," Quepongo Hundred (Worc. Deeds T:477-8). On 13 Feb 1800 (Worc. Deeds T:477-8) Hampton Long sold to Thomas Simpson Fassitt, physician, "Brothers Security," devised by William Long to Daniel Long, that Elisha Long devised to said Hampton Long, except 2 acres (Dryden, op. cit. 79-80).

81. COMFORT LONG, daughter of Solomon Long (36), b. Worc. Co., Md. 14 Feb 1772; d. Worc. Co. 24 May 1832; mar. (22 Nov 1791) JOSHUA GRAY, b. Worc. Co. 21 Aug 1770; d. Worc. Co. 23 Feb 1812. His mother was probably Anne Mitchell Gray, whose father, Joshua Mitchell, in his will, signed 8 Feb 1792 (prob. 28 Nov 1794) left to his daughter Ann Gray "the first folio volume of Bishop Tilotson's Sermona"; and he named son John Pope Mitchell, who witnessed deeds of Joshua Gray in 1790 and 1798; Levin Mitchell witnessed the will (Worc. Wills JW:18:13). John P. Mitchell in his will (prob. 2 Apr 1810) named a son Rufus (Worc. Wills MH4:202).

In the 1800 census for Worc. Co. Joshua Gray is listed near Hampton, Isaac, and Peter Long, and in 1810 near Hampton, Samuel and Isaac Long. Though the family Bible supplies no parents for Comfort Long, her husband's close associations with Solomon Long and the fact that Solomon's wife was Comfort strongly suggest that they were her parents. On 18 Jan 1806 Joshua and Comfort Gray sold to Thomas S. Fassitt for L243 "Cumberland" on Holly Branch adjacent to Tewkesberry (Worc. Deeds Y:1).

Joshua Gray signed his will 1 Feb 1812 (prob. 10 Mar 1812), bequeathing to wife Comfort all profits of his land; to daughters Molly and Ann Gray, part of the plantation where the dwelling house is, "along a line between Elizabeth Long and myself along Dukeberry Branch," then to the line of Silver Street; to three sons Levin, Henry B., and Walton Gray, all other lands, a tract "Joshua" when Walton becomes 21; and he mentioned son Jesse Gray. Mitchell Gray was executor. The widow Comfort renounced all right to the property (Worc. Wills MH27:474). Dates are from family Bible owned by Mrs. Ralph L. Brittingham.

M2-3. SEWELL LONG, son of David and Elizabeth (?Handy) Long (18), b. Somerset Co., Md., presumably in Morumsco area, c1776; d. Somerset Co., presumably in Perryhawkin area (east of Princess Anne) about 1830; mar. (lic. Som. Co. 22 Sep 1801) Mary C. Powell, his first cousin, daughter of Britain and Sarah (Long) Powell, b. Som. Co. c1779; d. Perryhawkin area about 1830. Descendants of their daughter Margaret report that Margaret, left an orphan at an early age, was reared by a Layfield family.

Since Sewell left no estate, there is no direct evidence that he was the father of the following children; however, in the 1820 census he is the only Long in Somerset Co. not otherwise accounted for with a family of children whose ages corresponded to those of his presumed children, and descendants of his presumed children all report that these children, their ancestors, were all brothers and sisters. Moreover, Sewell in 1820 was living in the Perryhawkin area. Some descendants recall that the common ancestor was named Henry Long, but there was no Henry (except Henry K., son of Zadock) with an appropriate family in 1810 and 1820.

Evidence from the 1830 census is unavailable, since that census for Somerset Co. has been lost.

Another possible problem is that the age of the eldest son John is reported in 1850 and 1860 as 50 and 60, but his age could have been rounded off in the reporting, though he may actually have been 48 and 58.

Children (born probably in Perryhawkin area, Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. John Long, b. ?1802; d. by 8 Aug 1865; presumably the male in 1820 b. 1794/1804.
- ii. Daughter, b. c1803; d. young; presumably the female in 1820 b. 1794/1804. She may have been Aunt Matilda, who d. by 1850.

- iv. Son, b. c1806/7; living 1820 but d. young, unmarried; presumably the male in 1820 b. 1804/10).
- v. Sarah H. Long, b. c1809/10; d. ?1848; mar. 1st Zadock Gibbons; 2nd James M. Brittingham; presumably the female in 1820, b. 1804/10).

Somerset Co. by 8 Aug 1865, probably in Perryhawkin District east of Princess Anne, mar. (lic. Som. Co. 22 June 1827) Anne (Nancy) Gibbons, daughter of Zadock and Amelia (Milly) (Lankford) Gibbons, b. Som. Co. 1909/10; living 1880. (Amelia was b. 1784/5, alive in 1850.) Dryden (1869-1932), Daniel

In the 1840 census Purnell Dryden appears as head of a family in the Lower District of Som. Co. With him was John Purnell, "military service pensioner." Purnell Dryden was a farmer in Dublin District: in 1850 head of household 933; in 1860 head of household 572; in 1870 head of household 64, with second wife Matilda and two children, also his four youngest by Betsy. In 1880 Purnell's widow Matilda was head of household 64 in Princess Anne District with her four sons.

It appears a strong likelihood that Purnell and Betsy named their third son Edward Long Dryden after her parents' first cousin, Edward Henry Carroll Long, who by 1841 was a prominent lawyer and politician in Princess Anne.

In 1918 he entered the Bureau of Standards in Washington, D.C., as a junior physicist, rapidly advancing through several grades to that of principal physicist. He was appointed chief of the aerodynamics section in 1920, chief of the mechanics and sound division in 1934 and associate director of the bureau in 1946. He left the Bureau of Standards in 1947 to become director of aeronautical research with the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics and two years later was appointed director of the Committee. The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics formed the nucleus for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and when the latter was formed in 1958, Hugh was appointed its deputy administrator, a position he held until his death. His international recognition in the field of aeronautical sciences resulted from his research on the problems of wind tunnel turbulence and boundary layer flow. This basic work led to the design of improved airplanes. During World War II, he was in charge of the Navy group that designed and developed the world's first automatic radar homing guided missile that was successfully used against the Japanese kamikaze flyers. He served as technical advisor to the U. S. representative on the United Nations Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space and was chief negotiator with the U.S.S.R. representative on possible cooperation in space activities for peaceful purposes.

Dr. Dryden wrote more than 100 articles in technical publications and contributed to a number of books. Many honors and awards were conferred on him in recognition of his accomplishments. He was a member of many societies and held offices in many of them. Some years after his death, NASA's Flight Research Center at Edwards, Cal., was renamed the Hugh L. Dryden Flight Research Center in his honor. In addition to his other activities, he was a lay minister in the Methodist Church. Sketches of his life and career can be found in American Men of Science, Who's Who in the East, Who's Who in the Nation's Capital, Who's Who in America and the National Encyclopedia of American Biography, among others. (according to family tradition) in 1815 at Pocomoke (i.e. Somerset Co.). He was listed in the 1810 Som. Co. census in Pocomoke Hundred.

Aside from these records, only two other references to Jesse Landon have turned up. In the Diary (1799-1818) of Thomas Seon Sudler (his wife's third cousin), under date of Thurs. 11 May 1809: "Careless Jesse Landen brought my cider casks home in bad order. Good deal of mud and dirt on them, they were not rinsed clean but Landon observed the dirt would not hurt them by no means- 5 sixtys and 2 hundreds." In a receipt of 20 Apr 1815, by Wm. Jones Sr. and Geo. Handy Jr., admins. of Wm. G. Waters, mention is made of corn sold by Jesse Landing (Som. Receipts EB 30:4).

Somerset Co. 9 Dec 1830) Alice Gibson, b. Somerset Co. c1811/12; d. probably in or near Baltimore after 1850; he mar. 2nd Emeline Rogers. She was reportedly a widow Rogers, with a son Thomas who was adopted by her second husband. Landon possibly moved to Baltimore soon after his marriage, certainly before 1840, for he is not listed in the 1840 Somerset Co. census, unless he is Josiah Landon, with three daus., 2 born 1830/35, 1 b. 1835/40. As Joshua he was head of household 811, in the 3rd Ward of Baltimore, in 1850. Living with him was his sister, Matilda Landon, reportedly b. 1801/2. According to his granddaus., Beulah and Lydia Akehurst Grimes, he is buried at "Hookstown" (somewhere near McDonough, which is between Pikesville & Reisterstown), but the above Joseph is buried in Mt. Olive, Baltimore. According to his granddaus., he was in the timber business, and all the family lived in Baltimore. In 1850, he was listed as a lumber merchant.

"Patterson" (Pattison in Bible). By his second marriage John Pinto was father of one surviving child (as well as a stillborn girl in 1858), Thomas Anthony Pinto, b. probably Princess Anne, 20 Apr 1862; d. Johns Hopkins U. Hospital, Baltimore, 26 Dec 1922, though a resident of Princess Anne. A friend of Frank Long, together they went to Duluth, Minn. around 1890. There, Thomas mar. They had four sons, born in Duluth: (1) John Covert Pinto, b. 10 Apr 1894; d. Duluth, 28 Dec 1895; (2) Herman Thomas Pinto, b. 22 Sep 1897; (3) Robert Anthony Pinto, b. 19 Dec 1903; and (4) Edgar Samuel Pinto, b. 13 Aug 1906. Robert A. Pinto in 1971 owned and lived on one of the original farms owned by Zadock Long. Robert owned the Pinto Bible from which most dates here were derived, and he reported on his immigrant ancestor's origins.

John Vas Pinto was brought to the United States by an elder brother and apprenticed out, in Baltimore or (more likely) Philadelphia, as a tailor. According to one account he was befriended by Leah Long's brother. According to another, Zadock Long, who had his clothes made at the establishment where John was a tailor, liked the young man so much that he invited him to come down for a visit to his home in Princess Anne, where John met and married Zadock's daughter, Leah, and settled in Princess Anne as a farmer. The 1850 Somerset Co. census shows him as head of household 1341, Princess Anne, with wife Leah, and Matilda (24) and John (17) Pinto.

In his will, signed 6 Feb 1869 (prob. 19 Mar 1869) John V. Pinto left his interest in the farm "on which I now reside and which fell to me by deed of partition between my daughter Matilda and myself," 6 Feb 1869, to his wife Deborah, then after her death (?or marriage) to "my infant son Thomas." If he should die, it would go to "my children," Matilda and John, jointly. He left other land to Matilda and John, and made bequests to grandson William Pinto, son of Matilda, under 18; he named wife Deborah guardian of Thomas; if she died, "my friend" W. J. Brittingham should take care of him. Executors were wife and William J. Brittingham. Witnesses were John Miller, C. L. Marshall, Edward F. Duer (Som. Wills SCL 5:230).

55. JOSIAH LONG, fifth son of David and Abigail (Lister) Long (18), b. probably Somerset Co., Md. 7 Oct 1747 (bapt. Coventry); d. Somerset Co., by 12 Apr 1774; mar. (c1773) Caty (Catherine) Houston, daughter of James and Mary Houston, b. c1754; d. ?Som. Co. 17 Jan 1778 (Zadock Long Bible); she mar. 2nd (5 Feb 1777) as his first wife, Zadock Long, her late husband's first cousin. On 4 Aug 1772 Josiah Long bought from William Furniss, Sr. for £2.15, "Amitte" (2 ¾ acres), south of Trading Branch (Som. Deeds 26:190). In his will, signed 28 Mar 1774, he named wife Caty Long, executrix, and "the child she is now bearing"; he also mentioned his brothers Levin, David, Jesse, and Leaven Long. Witnesses included William Furniss, Thomas Lester (Som. Wills EB5:46).

Child (born presumably in Somerset Co., Md.):

- i. Josiah Long, b. 1774; d. by 12 Jan 1813.

55-1. JOSIAH LONG, only child of Josiah and Caty (Houston) Long (55), b. probably Som. Co. in 1774; d. New Town, Worcester Co., Md. by 12 Jan 1813 (?bond); mar. (lic. Worc. 26 June 1801) Sarah (Sally) (Henderson) Henderson, presumably daughter of ?Joseph and Sarah (Merrill) Henderson, b. c1774/75 and widow of John Laws Henderson (c1770-1800; mar. lic. Worc. Feb 1796), by whom she had a son, Dixon Henderson (c1796/7; d. Georgetown College? 1814) and a daughter, Sally Laws Henderson (1799-1828), who mar. Capt. John White Long, her step-father's nephew.

According to Mr. Charles D. Long's uncle Alpheus Long (in 1888), Alpheus' grandmother, Sally Laws Henderson Long, had a brother, Dixon Henderson. Eben Hearne said that Josiah Long's wife was Elizabeth Henderson Henderson, but elsewhere her maiden name is given as Sarah Laws. This Josiah Long's son-in-law, Rev. James Murray, in his History of Pocomoke, 1888, wrote (p. 91) that his wife's father, Josiah, served apprenticeship with his uncle, David Long, Sr. (father of Capt. Henry, John W., and David Long) and that Josiah was one of the earliest hotel keepers in New Town; his widow, with Mrs. Bennet Clarvoe, carried on the business for a time. (Source of this paragraph: Charles D. Long papers.)

In the administration of Josiah's estate, executor was John Stevenson; securities were John Stevenson and Lemuel Purnell.

It was evidently this Josiah Long, "of Northampton Co., Va.," who on 14 Apr 1801, for 18.15 pounds sterling, sold to William King of Som. Co. "Amitte," bought 4 Aug 1772, as well as all his right and interest in adjacent lands originally obtained by Josiah Long, father of said Josiah (Som. Deeds 34:134). On 3 Mar 1812 Josiah Long of Worc. Co. bought from (his cousin and wife's son-in-law) John W. Long, for $38, 4 ¾ acres of "Piney Point," on the county road from New Town to Cedar Hall Landing (Worc. Deeds AC:177).

John and Sarah Lane (Dixon) Atkinson, b. c1806; d. c1835; mar. 2nd (New Town, Worc. Co., 11 Jan 1838) Rev. James Murray, son of Michael Murray (born Co. Armagh, Ireland) and his wife, Nancy Maddux, who reportedly lived in Somerset Co. and in Baltimore; he was born in New Town, Md. 11 Aug 1814; d. Pocomoke City, 26 Apr 1886; buried beside first wife. He mar. 2nd (Pocomoke City, 14 Jan 1886) Henrietta F. Spencer, b. 1837; d. Pocomoke City, 6 Oct 1902, aged 65; buried M.E. Cemetery, Pocomoke; in the 1900 census she was reportedly living with her sister, Sallie E. Spencer, on 2nd St., Pocomoke. It is reported that she received her husband's entire inheritance, his children receiving nothing. He was a Presbyterian clergyman, (Michael Murray, his father, after a Catholic massacre in about 1802, gave his children their choice of Catholicism or Protestantism) but he is most famous for his History of Pocomoke City, which he published in 1883.

55-112. FRANCIS ("FRANK") THOMAS MURRAY, son of Rev. James and Mary (Long) Murray (55-11), b. He mar. 1st (?1865) Jenny Mary Bundy

(widow Steele), b. 1843/4, Conn.; d. Pekin, Ill., by 1890; he mar. 2nd (Pekin, 3 May 1891, by Rev. J. D. Calhoun), as her 2nd husband, Mary L. Nichols Sunderland, daughter of Jeremiah V. and Phebe (Jerome) Nichols, b. South Berlin, N.Y., 5 Dec 1852; d. 25 Jan 1931. (This second marriage record correctly identifies Francis' parents and birthplace. Witnesses were Rev. Harvey Pratt and Rev. J. W. Hiatt.) She was buried with her husband at the Prairie Rest Cemetery, Delavan, Ill.

After leaving Pocomoke, Frank evidently spent time in Pa. (1866), in 1875/76 in Iowa, by 1880 in Pekin, Ill., where he apparently remained the rest of his life. According to Frank's father's history of Pocomoke, Frank in 1883 was in the railroad business "in Peoria, Ill." The 1880 census shows him and his family living on Briggs Street, in Pekin. The record of his second marriage indicates that in 1891 he was an agent for the Santa Fe Railroad. According to the 1900 census he was living at 815 Washington St., Pekin.

According to Pekin City Directories in 1903/4 Frank T. Murray, of 815 Washington St., was overseer of the poor, with office on 2nd floor, 359 Court St. In 1905-6, at the same residence, Frank T. Murray was "city supervisor." In 1880 his family included the first three children; in 1900, only the fourth. According to his obituary, he was survived by the three youngest children.

Children, all by first marriage:

- i. Alice G. Murray, b. Pa. c 1866; d. 1880/1900, in Pekin?
- ii. Cora Josephine Murray, b. Iowa, 1875/76; mar. (Pekin, Ill., by Rev. N. J. Leach, 12 June 1907) DR. ARTHUR NEVILLE CLAGETT, son of Robert and Emily (Carset) Clagett, b. Md. 1870 (his 2nd marriage, both residents of Chicago, Ill.); he was a physician and surgeon. Witnesses to the marriage were Miss Clara Gorsuch and F. F. Murray; he died Bethany Hospital, Chicago, 20 Sep 1953. Child:

mar. (Worc. Co., prob. New Town, 7 Mar 1867–lic. 23 Feb) REV. ALBERT JUMP, son prob. of William L. and Sarah A. (Allie) Jump, b. Harrington, Kent Co., Del. (according to daughter's death certificate), 18 Dec 1838; d. Kansas City, Mo., 5 Jan 1901; both buried Holden, Johnson Co., Mo., in cemetery now held by Holden Cemetery Association (his dates are from the stone on his grave, which identifies him as "Rev. Albert Jump, M.E. Church"). A notation in the margin of the old cemetery ledger (provided by Mr. H. H. Hank, Secy.-Treas.) indicates that lot 94F was purchased by Mrs. H. A. Jump, 23 Jan 1901, her address at that time 310 Oliver St., Kansas City, Mo.

As a necessarily itinerant Methodist clergyman, Rev. Jump was required to move frequently with his family. They were living in Hedgesville, Berkeley Co., W. Va., in July 1868; and in Aug 1874 in Virginia, probably western Virginia. According to the 1880 census they were living on the east side of 2nd St., on Franklin St., St. Louis, Mo. They were in Sedalia, Pettis Co., Mo., in Apr. 1888, but according to the 1900 census they were in Holden, Mo., at 107 E. 4th St. They must have moved in the summer or very soon thereafter to Kansas City, Mo., for according to Mrs. Harriet Denton, Rev. Jump was conducting a funeral service and burial in a cold downpour in Kansas City (probably late in Dec 1900) when he caught pneumonia, from which he died. According to the obituary of Mrs. Jump, she had been living, from 1904 to the time of her death in 1930, with her son, at 2116 Minnie St., Kansas City, Mo. According to Mrs. Denton, the Jumps had eleven children, five of whom died early from typhoid fever. (Mrs. Jump kept in touch with her relatives in Pocomoke.)

Grace ____; no issue. As a teenager he was run over by a railroad train, had to have both legs amputated, and went through life on artificial limbs, but mostly had to use a wheelchair (Mrs. Vivian Stevenson). The family reports that he was a telegrapher; his death certificate, only "Civil Service–Govt." In 1930 he was reportedly living in E. St. Louis, Ill.; for his last nine years he lived in Vincennes.

55-1131. MARY EVELYN JUMP, daughter of Rev. Albert and Harriet A. (Murray) Jump (55-113), b. Hedgesville, Berkeley Co., W. Va., 4 July 1868; d. on way to Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, Los Angeles, Calif., 28 Feb 1939, of a paralytic stroke; interred Forest Lawn Cemetery; grad. from normal school (Warrensburg?); mar. (Methodist Episcopal Church, Independence, Mo., 12 Jan 1897) JAMES MADISON OFFIELD, a widower, son of Lewis D(elaney?) and Martha (Spurriers?) Offield (his father b. in Va., probably Greenbrier Co., (W.) Va.), b. Tenn., 28 Feb 1842 (1846 in 1900 Mo. census); died Baptist Hospital, Muskogee, Okla., 22 Mar 1917; buried Sedalia, Mo. He had previously mar. a Miss Gentry, from Va.; living with him in 1900 were two sons by his first marriage, Gentry Offield (b. Texas, July 1877) and

James M. Offield (b. Mo., Mar 1880). According to her obituary in the Los Angeles Times, 1 Mar 1939, Mrs. Offield taught school for several years in Sedalia, Mo. About 1906 the Offields moved to Muskogee, Okla., where she reportedly had her own "Offield School for Girls." Mr. Offield was a hay and grain dealer and bought real estate. After his death, his widow evidently sent her son to live with his grandmother in Kansas City, where he sold newspapers, gradually entered amateur theatricals.

Mrs. Offield (according to Evelyn MacKinnon) went with her daughter and son to New York City (presumably 1917 or earlier) because she had been hired as a psychologist "counselor" at the Scudder School for Girls there. Dau. Alice was a museum guide in N. Y. until her marriage. Mrs. Offield subsequently moved to Beverly Hills, Cal., to be with her son. At the time of her mother's death, 1930, Mrs. Offield was reportedly living in Hollywood; at the time of her death, she resided in her own home, 525 N. Arden Drive, Beverly Hills. Throughout her life she maintained a voluminous correspondence with her cousins in Pocomoke City, especially Eben and Venie Hearne, later sending photos and news clippings of her son's movie successes. (Author was informed that 18th cent. Hearne letters were given to Natl. Archives, including two letters to Ebenezer Hearn from Benjamin Rush; Gen. Ebenezer Hearn's uniform was found in the attic of an old house.)

Carmel, Pa., in United Airlines flight from San Diego to New York's La Guardia airport (producer Earl Carroll died in the same crash). He mar. 2nd (Beverly Hills, Cal. 1946/47) Victoria Horne. After growing up in Kansas City, from the age of about 14, selling newspapers as a boy, doing odd jobs, engaging in amateur theatricals, he moved to Hollywood, where about 1927 he began a twenty-odd year movie career as a celebrated comedian. After his retirement from movies, he apparently was a land or real estate developer.

56. LEVIN LONG, sixth and youngest son of David and Abigail (Lister) Long (18), b. Annemessex Hundred, Somerset Co., Md. 10 June 1752 (Coventry); d. Snow Hill, Worcester Co., Md. Oct 1815 (Littleton Long Bible); mar. 1st (c1777) Leah Pollitt, daughter of John and Mary (Dennis) Pollitt, b. Somerset Co. 30 July 1756 (Handy Bible); d. Snow Hill, c1790/92; he mar. 2nd (c1792) Margaret Comfort Chaillé, daughter of Peter and Comfort (Houston) Chaillé, b. 1763; d. Snow Hill, 20 Sep 1827 (dates from Littleton Long Bible).

In the American Revolution, under date of 30 Aug 1777, Levin Long is listed as serving in the Snow Hill Battalion, in the Company of Capt. William Handy (Clements and Wright, Md. Militia in the Revolutionary War, p. 257). He also served in the Worcester Co. Militia in 1794 as Ensign in the 37th Regiment of Snow Hill.

On 15 Feb 1780 Levin Long purchased from Robert Martin Lot 56, 1 acre, in Snow Hill Town; on 17 July 1780 he purchased from Col. James Martin Lot 55 in Snow Hill (Dryden, Worc. Land Records, p. 593). On 14 Mar 1787 Levin purchased part of Lot 24 in Snow Hill from John and Ann Selby; on 30 May 1802 he and wife Comfort sold part to Anthony Bacon (op. cit., p. 589). On 24 Feb 1792 Levin bought from William Whittington "Sandy Wharf," 50 ½ acres; on 25 Mar 1805 he sold his rights to Levin Pollitt (his brother-in-law) (op. cit., p. 542). On 10 Nov 1798 Levin Long with James Stevenson bought from George Whittington of Accomack Co., Va., his rights to "Baltimores Gift and Partnership Point" (op. cit., p. 35). On 8 Aug 1805, Levin Pollitt, sheriff, per judgment against Levin Long, sold "Conveniency" and part of "Sandy Wharf" to John Custis Handy (op. cit., p. 138, 542).

John Stevenson McMaster, great-great-grandson of Levin Long, in his account of his grandfather, A Sketch of John Slemmons Stevenson, 1807-1867 (Jersey City, N.J.: A. J. Doan, 1902), wrote (p. 17), "Sally Long, the first wife of William Tingle, and the mother of Harriet G. H. Tingle (the writer's grandmother), was a daughter of Levin Long, of Snow Hill, who was twice married, first to Leah Pollitt and then to Comfort Chaillé. Levin Long and Leah Pollitt had four children: William, John, Nancy, who married a Mr. Brittingham from Virginia, and Sally, who married William Tingle."

John Pollitt of Somerset Co., father of Leah Pollitt Long, in his will, dated 5 June 1807 (prob. 23 Feb 1808) bequeathed ¼ of his estate to his granddaughter, Nancy Long. His grandsons, William and John Long, had not acted in a manner that "I am pleased with," and any money bequeathed to them might be used to pay their debts "heretofore contracted"; therefore, he left ½ of ¼ of his estate for the use of William Long, to be retained in the hands of the testator's son, Levin Pollitt, to be used for grandson William as he sees fit. Another ½ of ¼ was to be retained in the hands of William Tingle, who married the testator's granddaughter, Sally Long, for the use of John Long as he sees fit, provided said grandson, John Long, ever returns to the state of Maryland; if he does not his share to go to William Long, Sally Tingle, and Nancy Long equally (Som. Wills EB23:123).

In the 1800 census Levin Long was listed in Worc. Co. as having a son b. 1774/84, son b. 1784/90, (no son b. 1790/1800?), a daughter b. 1784/90 and 2 daughters b. 1790/1800. On 19 Nov 1811 Levin Long apprenticed his son Littleton Long, b. 15 Feb 1797, to John T. Taylor to learn the trade of a boot and shoe maker (Worc. Deeds MH15:400).

Levin Long's brother-in-law, Levin Pollitt of Somerset Co., in his extensive will, dated 3 May 1836 (prob. 3 Oct 1837), left to Nancy Brittingham a tract, "Cowty," adjacent to New Town, on the east side of the road to Virginia, and two lots, "Piney Point," part of tract "New Town," adjacent to Henry Long, and also he left her personalty. He also made bequests to the children of William Tingle "that he had by my niece Sally," to the children of William and Matilda Benson, grandchildren of William Long, and to Harriett Stevenson (his grand-niece) (Som. Wills JP5:10-12).

William had no children by the second marriage. In her will, dated 30 June 1829 (prob. 14 July 1829) Elizabeth Tingle mentioned daughter Sally Catherine Rackliffe and "my other children" (Worc. Wills MH27:378).

William Tingle was bequeathed lands adjacent to William Collier and Zadock Powell by the will of his father, Caleb Tingle, dated 21 July 1797 (prob. 6 Feb 1798) (Worc. Wills JW18:334-35). William's mother, Elizabeth Tingle, in her will, dated 12 Nov 1806 (prob. 24 Dec 1806) named granddaughter Elizabeth Tingle, daughter of son William (Worc. Wills MH4:57-59).

On 22 Nov 1805 William Tingle bought Lot 12 in Snow Hill (Dryden, Worc. Land Records, p. 586). On 8 Nov 1809 William Tingle bought 158 acres, "Gunshot Ridge," in modern West Berlin District, from John Tingle; on the same day he and wife Sarah sold it (op. cit., p. 277).

McMaster (p. 17) wrote: "Harriet Gore Handy Tingle [his grandmother] was a daughter of William Tingle and Sally (Long) Tingle, who lived, except for a short time in Snow Hill, on a farm near St. Martin's and about five miles from Berlin, Maryland, and there died...he and his wife are buried in the Episcopal Churchyard at Snow Hill," but the grave stones have not survived. McMaster further wrote that William Tingle and his first wife, Sally Long, had five children: John, William, James, Elizabeth Dennis and Harriet Gore Handy.

In his will, dated 12 Feb 1824, William Tingle made bequests to sons John, William, and James, a minor, John to be sole executor; to daughters Elizabeth D. Hudson and Harriet G. H. 56-144. DAVID LONG STEVENSON, son of John Slemmons and Harriet G. H. (Tingle) Stevenson (56-14), b. New Town, Worcester Co., Md. 26 Feb (28 on gravestone) 1834; d. of bronchitis, 1347 E. 62nd St., Chicago, 28 Aug 1912; mar. (Hannibal, Marion Co., Mo. 25 Feb 1858) Maria Amanda Garrard, his step-sister, daughter of Massena and Elizabeth Eunice (James) Garrard, b. on Garrard farm near Hannibal, Mo. 1838; d. Chicago, 7 Nov 1899?; both buried Washington Cemetery, Glasgow, Mo.

David apparently accompanied his father from Maryland to Missouri in 1853 (?), evidently settling first in St. Louis, for according to John S. McMaster, David came from St. Louis to Hannibal for his father's wedding in June 1854. After his marriage David and his family apparently lived in Hannibal until after his father's death in 1867. David, wife, and Maggie were living with his father in Hannibal, 1860. By Aug 1868 they had moved to Glasgow, Howard Co., Mo., for records of the Glasgow Presbyterian Church show that on 26 Aug 1868, David Long Stevenson, Mrs. [?D. L.] Stevenson, and Mrs. E. E. Stevenson (David's stepmother) joined the church by transfer of letter. Marie Louisa, presumably daughter of David, on 15 Mar 1885 joined the church by profession of faith. The 1880 census for Missouri shows D. L. Stevenson and family in Glasgow.

David and most of his family removed from Glasgow to Woodlawn, Jefferson Co., Ill., for the Presbyterian Church records show that all the above were dismissed to the Woodlawn Presby. Church 11 Aug 1889.

By 1898 (1900, according to David's death certificate), he and his family removed to Chicago, Ill., where, according to the 1900 census, they were living at 6432 Washington Ave. From 1898 to 1907 (when he retired), David (according to death certificate) was a realtor. He had reportedly lived in Chicago, and Illinois, 24 years (i.e. since 1888); he must therefore have removed to Chicago soon after moving to Woodlawn. His usual residence was listed as 1530 Glenlake Ave., in Ward 7. He had been at his place of death 3 days; his death was reported by Louisa Stevenson, possibly his daughter.

Washington Cemetery records (Glasgow), provided by Ms. Anna M. Birch, Pres., Glasgow Community Museum, who also supplied the Presby. records, show that the family bought plots there only after most of them had moved away. On 25 July 1893 Lancaster and Stevenson purchased West ½ Lot 8, block 1, and on 5 June 1900 Miss Annie Stevenson purchased East ½ of Lot 8, block 1.

Children (all born Missouri, first three probably Hannibal, others in Glasgow):

- iv. James G. or Edward Stevenson, b. 1866; d. 1900 (on father's gravestone); William Stevenson, buried Glasgow 22 May 1900, must be a son of James (or 8th child of David, for according to the obituary there were 8 children).
- v. Marie Louise (Maria Louisa) Stevenson, b. Oct 1872; single 1900; she reported her father's death in 1912, still single at time.

56-145. JOHN HENRY STEVENSON, son of John Slemmons and Harriet G. H. (Tingle) Stevenson

(56-14), b. New Town, Md. 20 Oct 1835; d. probably near Towson and Govans, in Baltimore County, c1894; mar. (lic. Worc. Co. 30 Dec 1863) Anna Maria Louisa Cottingham, daughter of Levin and Mary A. (Tilghman) Cottingham, sister of his elder brother's wife, b. 2 Jan 1840 (bapt. Coventry); d. after 1900; both reportedly buried Govans Presbyterian Church, Govans, Md.

He accompanied his father and family to Hannibal, Missouri, in the 1850s (listed as merchant there in 1860 census), but returned to New Town (Pocomoke) to marry and, apparently, settle for a time. He was head of household in Pocomoke City in 1880, a mail contractor. His wife's mother, who died that year, was living with them. His widow, with all her children except Edward, was head of a household in Baltimore Co. in 1900, residing on Harwood Ave., District 9. Listed as merchant, with personal property valued at $600.00, living with father in Hannibal, Mo. 1860. According to Mrs. Marimon all were in Baltimore-Towson area in 1935, all involved in greenhouses and flower shops; decorated the home when Wallis Simpson married the Duke of Windsor, etc.

George and Margaret Drura were listed in the Som. Co. census, 1850, household #1184, in Princess Anne(?) District. George was a merchant. On 21 Nov 1840 James Stewart, trustee to Margaret R. Drura, by order of Chancery 28 May 1836 was authorized to sell lands of William Long, late of Som. Co., dec., for payment of debts; on 5 Apr 1837 Stewart sold the land to Margaret R. Long, since married to George Drura—house and Lot 2 in Princess Anne for $320.00 (Som. Deeds 60:422). William Long signed his will without dating it, leaving all to his wife and children (no names). Child:

- i. Littleton Long, b. c1765/70; d. by 9 Oct 1810.

P1-1. LITTLETON LONG, only child of Littleton Long (P1), b. presumably in Worcester Co., Md., probably near New Town, c1765/70; d. Worcester Co., near New Town or Pitts Creek, by 9 Oct 1810. He mar. (probably) 1st c1794, Sarah Ann, possibly a Tull, b. 1770, or her sister Mary Elizabeth, b. 1772, who d. (at the latest) early in 1808; mar. 2nd (lic. Somerset Co., Md., 31 May 1808) Anna Tull, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Betsy) (Merrill) Tull, possibly his first cousin, b. 1788; she mar. 2nd JOSEPH HOUSTON.

From L. P. Dryden: "The Worcester County Probate Key shows that Anne Long and her brother Thomas M(errill?) Tull were appointed administrators of Littleton Long, decd., with bond filed 9 Oct 1810. Edward Lambden and Jacob Boston were sureties." He goes on to add, "This suggests that Anne Long was a sister of Thomas Merrill Tull and hence niece of the Sally Long to whom you refer on page 418 of your book" (letter of 14 Sep 1970). Also from L. P. Dryden: "On 13 Feb 1811, Anne Long, with Bayly Young and William Henderson as sureties, was appointed guardian c1769).

Children:

By first marriage:

- i. Mary Long, b. c1795/96; mentioned in will of her father's father; must have died by 1810, otherwise a guardian would surely have been appointed for her unless she were born as early as about 1792/3/4.
- ii. Littleton Long, b. c1797/1798.

- iii. Sarah (Sally) Long, b. 20 July 1803; mar. (1822) ISAAC HARRIS.

Co. 25 Sep 1822) ISAAC HARRIS, apparently son of Thomas and Sarah (Mills) Harris, b. probably Worc. Co. 1796/97; d. c1850/60? Thomas Harris, b. 27 Aug 1762, d. 1791?; was son of John and Mary (Marshall) Harris (see Boston, p. 398); he mar. Sarah Mills (lic. Worc.) 8 Mar 1796. He was head of household 1330 in 1850, 1st census dist., Worc. Co. His wife's age is given there as 39 (i.e. born 1810/11), very unlikely in view of the date of marriage. In the 1870 census she was living with her daughter and son-in-law, the Joneses, her age given as 63 (i.e. born 1806/7), which may be closer to the truth. Sally is buried in Jones Cemetery, Payne Rd., Tom Aydelotte farm.

Children (no record of Harris girls mar. in Worc. 1835-50):

- i. ?Littleton T. Harris, b. 1824/25; mar. (not Worc. Co., 1848) Joanna G. Coulbourne, b. c1829/30; he was head of household 1325 in Worc. Co., 1st census dist., 1850, but not listed thereafter?

Elisha Jones was head of household 1690, 1st census dist. of Worc. Co., 1850; he was probably the Elisha who was son of Elisha Jones, who d. 1825. In 1870, Oliver Jones, 45, farmer, was head of household 441 in the Borough of New Town (1st election district). He had real estate valued at $1600, personal property at $1000. P1-121. LITTLETON NAPOLEON BONAPARTE LONG, son of Levin and Eliza (Riggin) Long (P1-12), b. probably Baltimore, Md. ?1823; d. (presumably) at his farm on Dividing Creek, on what was known as Chloris Point, in Trappe district, Talbot County (south of Easton), between 10 June and 5 Aug 1886; mar. (?Baltimore, 1850) Katherine ("Kate") J. H. Tucker, daughter of Capt. Thomas Tucker of Talbot (?) Co., b. Baltimore, Feb 1833; d. 723 Calvert St., Baltimore, 13 Sep 1901; both are presumably interred in Talbot County. According to Mrs. Verlander, "N. B." Long was a sea-going captain, traveling at least to England, from which he brought back much furniture.

On 1 June 1866, Littleton N. B. Long of Baltimore purchased from James Hooper and wife Annie E., of Baltimore, for $12,500, a "parcel of lands and premises, farm or plantation,...in Talbot County on Dividing Creek, commonly called 'Hier Dier Lloyd,'" adjacent to land of Alexander H. Barnett, and the heirs of John S. Martin, etc., a total of 192 acres (Talbot Deeds, 72:510-511). Since a notation in the margin of the deed indicates that it was delivered to J. F. Turner, attorney, 22 Jan 1890, it would appear that Littleton's widow sold it about that time. An 1877 Eastern Shore atlas shows Capt. L. Long as a landowner on Dividing Creek. He probably moved there 1866/67.

Littleton N. B. Long "of Talbot County...being in moderate health of body," on 10 June 1886 wrote his will, bequeathing to "my beloved wife Kate J. H. Long, the whole of my property, real, personal or mixed to hold during her natural life or widowhood or until my youngest child shall arrive at the age of twenty one years, it being my desire to leave my said wife in a position to provide a home for, and properly educate my children." He further made provision for division of the property if his wife should die or remarry before the youngest child reached twenty-one, or when the youngest child reached twenty-one, and he appointed his wife executrix. Witnesses were J. D. Clark, Jas. S. Chaplain, E. M. Newman. The will was admitted to probate 10 Aug 1886 (Talbot Wills 15:153). Most of the dates of children were secured by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jackson Long from family Bible owned by Frank Arthur, Baltimore, in spring 1977.

- i. Alice Virginia Long, b. Oct 1851; d. 26 Dec 1863 (Baltimore).

In 1900 she was presumably already a widow, or divorced, living with her mother. Given to drink, Britton rode a horse off the pier at Atlantic City and drowned himself. She traveled to Col., Fla., etc., visiting all the family; kept in touch.

Worc. 7 Jan 1817) Elizabeth ("Betsy") Benston (Benson), dau. of John Benson, b. c1801; b. c1833; 2nd (lic. Worc. 29 Apr 1834) Mary Anne Ewell Gillett, dau. of Charles (d. John Benson of Worc. Co. in his will (9 Sep 1818; 13 Oct 1818) named dau. Betsy Long (Worc. Wills MH2:330). Major Gillett of Worc. Co. in his will (8 Feb 1832; 21 Feb 1832) left lands to wife Mary Ann (Worc. Wills MH27:514).

On 4 Oct 1827 Jesse Long and wife Elizabeth of Worc. Co. sold to Thomas George Beauchamp of Somerset Co., for $40, 8 acres of "Piney Point," sold by John Stevenson, Trustee of Josiah Long, to Levin Long on 16 Dec 1820 (Worc. Deeds AT:416); Levin was Jesse's elder brother, Josiah their younger brother. On 19 Jan 1839 Jesse Long and his wife Mary Ann Long sold to Henry Long (his cousin) part of "Piney Point," a lot on the east side of the county road leading from New Town to Cedar Hall, one mile from New Town, formerly belonging to Josiah Long, sold by Dr. John Stevenson, trustee, to Levin Long, purchased by Jesse Long from heirs of Levin Long (Worc. Deeds GMN2:160-62).

According to Murray's History of Pocomoke City, Jesse Long was a boot and shoemaker in New Town (p. 90). Of his contribution to the church, Murray wrote: "foremost among those who bore the burden and stood by the [Methodist] Church in its low estate was Jesse Long, who not only entertained the preachers, but would bear the greater part, if not all of the expenses of light and fuel for the church. He would collect the quarterage money, and go out among the citizens of the town and ask contributions for the support of the preacher. He was the mainstay of the church in New Town until he died...in 1845...at the age of 52 years, as his tombstone bears the above date.... He was buried in the Methodist Episcopal church burying-ground in New Town" (pp. 210-211); the stone no longer survives.

Jesse Long died intestate; bond for his estate was posted 12 Aug 1845, securities Ebenezer Hearn and George W. Landing. Jesse Lee Long, the executor, filed an inventory 19 Aug 1845 and subsequently filed accounts. In three distributions no heirs were named (Worc. Accts. LPS16:528). Evidence for assigning to him the following children is provided by descendants. The death certificate of his daughter Mary Ann gives her father's name as Jesse Long, birthplace as Worc. Co.; her death was reported by M. V. Brewington (her sister's son). The obituary of Levin Thomas Long (1897) identifies his surviving sister as Mrs. W. W. Gordy of Salisbury, Md. According to Levin's grandson, John Long of Hopewell, who was six when his grandfather died, "Aunt Mary Ann Gordy" used to visit Levin in Hopewell; and also according to John Long, who was seven when the Rev. William H. C. Long died (1898), "Uncle Billy" Long used to come across the Bay and preach at St. Peter's Methodist Church in Hopewell. William Long's obituary reports his birthplace as Pocomoke City, and his sister Arinthia Ann reportedly met her husband in New Town (now Pocomoke City), where he was a hatter.

Jesse Long was listed in the 1830 census in the 1st Dist. of Worc. Co., b. 1790/1800, wife (b. 1800/10), 2 sons (1820-25, 1825/30) and daughter (1820-25), plus 2 other males (1810/15) and 1 female (1800/10). In 1840 Jesse Long (b. 1800/10) appears in the Southern District of Worc. Co. wife (1810/20) and three sons (1820/25, 1825/30, 1835/40) and one daughter (1835/40). The two youngest children are by the second marriage; there were no children by the third marriage.

P4-22. WILLIAM HENRY CLAY LONG, son of Jesse and Elizabeth (Benston) Long (P4-2), b. New Town (Pocomoke City), Worcester Co., Md. 5 Oct 1825; d. Irvington, Lancaster Co., Va. 30 June 1898; mar. (Somerset Co., Md. 7 Apr 1847 – date of license and ceremony, performed by Rev. John Crosdale) Mary Scarborough Broughton, daughter of William Scarborough and Elizabeth (Coulbourne) Broughton of Rehobeth, Md., b. reportedly New Town, 31 Dec 1828; d. Irvington, 30 July 1903; both buried Methodist Church cemetery there. In the 1850 Somerset Co. census William and his family lived near Crisfield, his occupation carpenter. Living with them was his half-brother, Levin Long. By 1860 the Longs had moved to Dames Quarter. On basis of what his granddaughter, Rachel Buchan, said about visiting Somerset Co. home of her grandfather, he would appear to have lived at some time next to St. Paul's Church, Marion. According to her, during the Civil War William was a blockade runner.

William at some time became a Methodist clergyman. In Oct 1866 and in Jan and Mar 1870 he performed marriages. The records of St. Peter's Methodist Church (Hopewell, Md.) show that he performed at least fifteen baptisms between 19 July 1869 and 6 Mar 1870, mostly by sprinkling at home; for instance: William Thomas, infant, b. 17 Nov 1868, son of Alexander and Sardelia Evans, baptized by sprinkling at home on 26 July 1869 by Rev. William H. C. Long, officiating minister.

In 1872 Rev. Long was invited to Irvington, Va., across the Bay, where he was “to teach during the week and preach on Sunday – all for the munificent sum of $800 a year” (Porter). He carried out his mission in the Old Chapel, until the present United Methodist Church was constructed in 1889. According to Mrs. Buchan, he was apparently also a contractor, who built the church, and many houses in Irvington including his own, facing Carter’s Creek, in which Mrs. Buchan lived.

Rev. Long was a cheerful and popular man who quietly played a leading role in Irvington. He “had wonderful influence over the community as teacher and Minister, and possessed the remarkable talent of imparting knowledge to the young,” who not only invited “him to their parties but insisted upon his attendance.” He was given credit for “the upbuilding of Irvington in all its religious, moral, educational and social efforts, and his influence spread throughout all the counties of the Northern Neck” (from Mrs. Louise Messick Porter’s biographical sketch of W. H. C. Long). He was in the construction business with son Jesse.
